

Jinnah College of Nursing

Introduction

Jinnah College of Nursing earlier started from Medicare School of Nursing (MSON) in 1997 as the first academic unit of S. M Sohail Trust at Medicare Hospital Shaheed–E–Millat Road, Bahadurabad Karachi. Initially, a three-year diploma in nursing program was started. In June 2003, the Medicare School of Nursing was relocated to the Jinnah Medical College Hospital in Korangi. Later on, MSON was recognized for the training of Midwifery & Cardiac Specialties. Medicare School of Nursing was upgraded to Jinnah College of Nursing (JCN) in 2009.

The Jinnah College of Nursing has implemented the HEC & PNMC-approved curriculum to meet the challenges of future requirements in the field of Nursing education, evidence-based practice, and research to fill the gap between the required and present demands of skilled motivated and professionally trained nurses at national and international level. The Jinnah College of Nursing is striving to produce competent, confident, and skilled nursing professionals who will serve humanity in the field of nursing with pride, devotion, and professional ethical standards.
